

Modern Slavery Awareness Sessions

Precursor to the 1-day Identifying and Supporting Victims of Modern Slavery

This 3-hour training session will provide Adult Social Care staff with the knowledge you need to support the Slavery Safeguarding Lead (SSL). These sessions are open to Hackney ASC staff and to all members of the CHSAB.

Times and Date:

09:30-12:30 or 13:30-16:30, 06/12/2017

09:30-12:30 or 13:30-16:30. 13/02/2018.

Venue:

Room 2.01, Hackney Service Centre

Application Forms to:
trainingHSC@hackney.gov.uk

Further information:
terry.cocklin@hackney.gov.uk

the Workforce Development team

Modern Slavery Awareness Sessions

Aim.

This training will provide you with the knowledge you need to support the Slavery Safeguarding Lead (SSL) in the National Referral Mechanism pilots.

Objectives.

The session will cover:

- What trafficking and slavery are
- Nature and scale of the issue – nationally, regionally, locally
- Types of trafficking and slavery and how to identify them
- Legal definitions and the Modern Slavery Act
- Working with potential victims
- Victim and survivors perspective
- How to interview and engage with vulnerable persons, safeguarding approach
- The National Referral Mechanism – what it is and completing it
- Processes to follow and things to consider
- Your agencies responsibilities
- Case studies and practice identifying potential victims

Outcomes:

By the end of the day you will be able to:

- Describe human trafficking and slavery and the different forms it takes;
- Understand the methods and control mechanisms that are used;
- Recognise the signs that indicate a person may be trafficked;
- Describe what they would do if faced with a potential victim of trafficking;
- Understand typical behaviours demonstrated by trafficked persons;
- Understand the risks associated with having been trafficked and the needs someone may have because of this;
- Understand their role in the process;
- Refer an individual into the national referral mechanism (if appropriate);
- Understand statutory duty to report and any obligations they may have under the Modern Slavery Act.

Venue:

Hackney Service Centre, Room 2.01
1 Hillman Street
Hackney
London
E8 1DY

Parking and attendance:

There is very limited parking available around the Hackney Service Centre and Hackney CVS. There is no parking around the Guildhall. Please ensure that you allow plenty of time.

Registration is at 09:15 and 13:15 for a 09:30 and 13:30 start.

Latecomers will be refused entry and a non-attendance fee charged as per our Terms & Conditions.